In a recent article published by Business Standard titled “PFRDA warns NPS & APY subscribers about ongoing fraud in their name”, Our Partner Rahul Sundaram shares his expert insights.

Rahul Opined PFRDA as a best practice requires subscribers to ignore fake messages or calls promising unrealistic rewards. They should never share personal details like passwords or PRAN numbers. Be cautious of offers with too-good-to-be-true returns, verify them first. Only use official PFRDA/NPS Trust websites or apps for transactions
